

Lochaerie Resort

Private Cabins in Olympic National Park on Lake Quinault.
638 N. Shore Rd, Amanda Park, WA 98526

April 2004

North Shore Rd Hikes

Maple Glade Trail & Homestead Trail – an easy walk (.5 miles) through level open rain forest. Signs along the trail identify common rainforest trees. Begins at the Quinault Ranger's Station (about 2 miles east of Lochaerie Resort). Watch for grazing deer, Roosevelt Elk and occasional flooding.

Big Cedar Trail – (.25 miles) This trail is short but great for kids. Follow it to see the one of the World's Largest Western Red Cedars. There are stairs and boardwalks along the way.

Irely Lake – (1.2 miles) parking area for this trail is about 1.5 miles from the bridge that adjoins North Shore Rd. to South Shore Rd. This trail also joins Three Lakes (7 miles).

Wolf Bar – a moderate hike (2 miles) from end of North Fork of Quinault River. This trail begins about 3 miles from the bridge over the Quinault River. Wolf Bar is on a bluff overlooking the river. You will enjoy a view of Mt. Lawson and plenty of alder trees and sword ferns.

More Experienced hikers may choose to continue along the North Fork of the Quinault to join other trails including the Elip Creek Loop (20 mile loop), Low Divide (16.5 miles) and Three Lakes (7 miles).